

NARRATIVE PRACTICES ADELAIDE

Level Two Intensive

August 3-7, 2009

with Maggie Carey and Shona Russell

This 5 day intensive workshop is planned to provide opportunities for participants to extend on ideas and practices of narrative therapy they have gained through previous training. The features of this intensive include prioritizing the particular interests of participants which will actively shape the agenda of the intensive. There will be ongoing exploration of the skills of narrative therapy including

- Putting narrative ideas into practice through collaborative interviewing
- The use of letter writing and documents to support emerging stories
- Scaffolding the absent but implicit
- Elaborating on specific practices of the narrative approach

The focus of the intensive will be on the development of skills applicable in work with individuals, families, groups and communities. The teaching methodology will include live interviews, review of therapeutic conversations, sharing stories of work, gaining experience through structured exercises, descriptions of specific maps of narrative practice and group discussion. We hope to create a rigorous and lively learning experience where participants can further develop their ideas and skills in collaboration with others. There will be maximum of 12 participants.

THE TEACHERS:

Narrative Practices Adelaide is located at 24 Hurtle Square, Adelaide. The teaching faculty includes Maggie Carey, Shona Russell and Rob Hall. Each of us are currently working as therapists and teachers and collectively have extensive experience in working with children, individuals, couples, families and communities, particularly in the area of responding to the effects of violence and abuse.
