

NARRATIVE PRACTICES ADELAIDE

Using Narrative Ideas in Supervision

Two Day Workshop: April 2 & 3 2009
with Maggie Carey and Shona Russell

This workshop is for people in a supervisory role who are interested in using narrative practices to support the work of the people that they supervise. A range of roles and responsibilities related to supervision will be explored as well as ideas and practices that can enliven supervision. The workshop programme will include;

- Narrative approaches to supervision – options and possibilities.
- Practices that reinvigorate our work
- Intentional state inquiries – an exploration
- Exploring the “absent but implicit”
- The position we take as supervisors
- Supervision as a negotiated relationship.
- Re- storying professional identity through rich story development
- Creating audiences for re-storying professional identity

THE TEACHERS:

Narrative Practices Adelaide is located at 24 Hurtle Square, Adelaide. The teaching faculty includes Maggie Carey, Shona Russell and Rob Hall. Each of us are currently working as therapists and teachers and collectively have extensive experience in working with children, individuals, couples, families and communities, particularly in the area of responding to the effects of violence and abuse.
